OUT 37 DOCTORS

College to 55.

LIEUT. CAPEHART WEDS MISS SCUDDER

Daughter of Supreme Court

Justice Becomes Bride Justice Becomes Bride of Navy Officer.

FEW WITNESS CEREMONY took place yesterday after-

was Lieut. Capehart's best man, and sushers were Lieut. Francis J. Comett. U. S. N.; Lieut. A. H. Gray, U. N.; Lieut. Louis Hancock, Jr., U. N., and Lieut. Everett Dole Capett, the bridegroom's brother.

Married in Brooklyn.

marriage of Miss Margaret Fry-Putnam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Putnam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
am Allen Putnam, to Laurence dman Dunham, Third Deputy Focommissioner and son of Mr. and Commissioner and son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood W. Vine of Ridgewood, was married to David Don yesterday afternoon at the home of her parday afternoon at the home of her parday afternoon at the home of her parents by the Rev. Philip C. Pearson of Christ Church, Ridgewood. The Rev. L. Mason Clarke, pastor re First Presbyterian Church, offi-dassisted by the Rev. Francis es of Goshen, N. Y. Only near combined with silver embroidered chiffon, and large leghorn hats trimmed with tulle and chiffon of a similar shade. They carried bouquets of mauve orchids.

Arthur Alexander was the best man. The ushers were Robert Mann, Robert Farley, Bernard Benziger, Paul Maresi, Frank King and Edward Burns. After MACGUIRE-CORDIER.

Ceremony Performed at the Home of the Bride's Mother.

Miss Alice M. Cordier, daughter of miss Alice M. Cordier, daughter of Mrs. Auguste Cordier, was married to Dr. Constantine J. MacGuire, Jr., last night at the home of her mother, 47 East F.fty-second street, the Rev. Education. Walleigh Capehart, ook place yesterday afterhome of the bride's parents, home of the bride's parents, and a well of silver embryolery, and a well of silver embryolery. the home of the bride's parents, how street, Brooklyn. Justice and sliver embroidery and a veil of tuile, had Mrs. Leslie F. Mulford as her matron of honor, and the Misses Kaths family is in mourning and the relatives and close friends bride and bridegroom were introduced in the fidegroom were introduced in the fidegroom with the fidegroom, and Jeannette Burns of Brooking as bridesmaids. They were costumes of taffeta in three shades of pink combined bride, was maid of honor, and girdles of hale blue satisfied. girdles of pale blue satin.

Dr. Tracy Farnum of New Haven was

John A. Vietor, Dr. Roderick V. Grace, Dr. Otto C. Pickbardt, Dr. Walter P. Anderton, Dr. Edward D. Pratt, Arthur J. McKenna, Edgar Hobbs Arnold of Brookiyn and Charles M. Horton of Middletown, N. Y.

A reception followed the ceremony and Dr. and Mrs. MacGuire left later for the South. They will live in this

KINGSFORD-HOFFMAN.

Raltimore Girl Becomes Bride of Young New Yorker.

BALTIMORE, June 10.-Miss Eliza Baltimone, June 10.—Miss Eliza Lawrence Hoffman, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Curzon Hoffman of Baltimore and Ruxton, was married to Irving Bowdoin Kingsford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. Kingsford of New York and Short Hills. N. J., to-day in Trinity Church by the Rev. Edwin B. Niver, rector of Carist Church, Baltimore, assisted by the Rev. Endicott Penbody, headmaster of Groton School. The bridesmalks were the Misses Eliza. The bridesmalds were the Misses Eliza
Battle Dancy, Isabel Rieman Thom,
Helen A. Harian, Julianna Brent Keyser, Ellen McHenry Keyser and Anne Winslow Williams. The flower girls were two young nieces of the bride, Henrietta Hoffman Lord, daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. John Walter Lord of Roland
Parks and Bersy. Park, and Betsy Lawrence Duval, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harson Raw-lings Duval of New York.

Lawrence-Brown.

Photo by White Studio.

Mrs. Wadleigh Capehart.

the bridesmaids were the Misses Lucy Howard of Washington, D. C.: Ilse Knauth and Ursula Knauth of West End avenue, Manhattan, and Hazel L. Scudder.

Lieut Joseph Ogden Hoffman, U. S. N., was Lieut. Capehart's best man, and acted as best man.

Both Mr. Lawrence and his bride had been married before. Mrs. Lawrence's first husband, who was captain of Yale's died two years ago. Vine-Don.

Mrs. Edith C. Vine, daughter of Mr.
Poand Mrs. Elwood W. Vine of Ridgeand wood was married to David Don yester-

W. E. MARCUS, JR., BETROTHED.

s of the families were in at- First Wife Left Illm Because She

Third Deputy Police Commissioner Warried in Brooklyn. VOLCK LEAVES CITY; MRS. JULIE E. MURPHY GEN. E. L. MOLINEUX HAVE GAY BIRTHDAY WIFE IS WITH MOTHER TO BE BURIED IN TROY

Town Celebrates Its 275th An- He Denies That She Was Kept Funeral of Widow of U. S. Civil War Veteran, Aged 32, niversary To-morrow-Society Arriving.

Prisoner in Home-No Reconciliation.

Preferred Dogs to Children.

Montclair, N. J., June 10.—The enton of the 275th anniversary of the Senator Will Be Held at Rumson To-morrow.

Fails to Recover From Effects of Ether.

SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., June 10.—Final Negotiations between Morris R. Volck SEARGHT, N. J., June 10.—The Gen. Edward L. Molineux died in gage

CADET COVELL GETS FORDHAM SENDS WEST POINT HONOR

Wins Over Texas Candidate by Eighteen Pharmacists Increase Eighteen-hundredths of Graduates at Medical a Unit.

BIG CROWD AT ACADEMY PLEAS FOR HIGH IDEALS

history of the Fordham University Medi-Military Academy were made known to-day. Cadet W. E. R. Covell of Wash-ington, D. C., is in first place. Cadet E. R. Kimble of Texas is second, Cadet unter represented the school of D. D. Arthur of South Carolina is third.

Cadet E. F. Miller of Iowa is fourth and Cadet J. S. Bragdon of Pennsylvania is

The eighteen seniors who received deh.
The race between Cadets Covell and vates in Fordham's new branch of study.

The race between Cadets Covell and climble for first honors was very close, but of a maximum number of units of 5.525, Cadet Covell is credited with 288.17 and Cadet Kimble 2.397.99, only of fifty-five degrees conferred. ighteen-hundredths of a unit separating The honors of the graduating class in eighteen-hundredths of a unit separating them.

The arrival of the Secretary of War is scheduled for to-morrow. Mr. Garrison will remain over and deliver the diplomas on Saturday morning.

The biggest crowd of commencement week so far visited the post to-day. The schedule began with an exhibition drilled the riding hall at 10 o'clock by sixty-eight of the cadets of the graduating class. These men were picked horsemen selected by the officer in charge of cavalry tactics at the academy. Capt Julian R Lindsey of the regular cavalry arm of the service, under whose direction to-day's exhibition was given.

There were equitation exercises, a jumping contest, a polo pony race and a daring and skilful exhibition of military gymnastics on horseback. Cadet Thomas F Taylor of Tennessee showed splendid form in the jumps. He was mounted on Howell. Cadet James B Ord of California on Nimrod, a prize winning horse, belonging to Capt. Card of the Medical Corps. also starred in the jumping events. Cadet Clifford B. Kilng of Georgia won the polo pony race. The riding of Cadets Corbin, Clonkhite and Mencher received particular attention.

At 4 o'clock the entire battalion of cadets participated in the grass plain pitching dril, held on the grass plain pitching dril, held on the grass plain pitching dril, held on the grass plain.

The honors of the graduating to medicine were won by Dr. John A. Loughin, who delivered the student's outling, who delivered the student's outling the student's outling, who delivered the student's outling, who delivered the student's outling the student's outling the student's outling the student's outling the student's outling, who delivered the student's outling the student's outling the student's outline, the student's outline, the student's outline, who delivered the student's outling, who delivered the student's outli classes of '65, '69 and '85 are holding reunion dinners.

Of the class of '65, Cols. W. R. Livermore, W. S. Stanton, A. D. Palmer, Edward Hunter and C. A. Dempsey and Capt. D. W. Paine, H. B. Ledyard and Charles P. Smith are in attendance Cols. H. A. Harris and D. A. Lye, Major Eric Bergland, Capts. H. P. Perrine and Charles Braden and A. S. Hardy are representing the class of '69 at their dinner. The class of '85 representations of the fundamental process of the fundamental sented in part by Gen. Heavy P. Age Cain, Adjutant-General of the army: Cols. J. D. Barrette, R. E. L. Michie, W. A. Holbrock, W. E. Craighill, B. B. Buck, J. M. Carson, A. L. Parmenter and W. G. Martin, has twenty-eight at its dinner.

Dr. E. H. Griffin Seeks Rest After

Gen. Horatio G. Gibson of the class of '47 has arrived. He is the oldest living graduate of the academy.

Long Service.

Baltimone, June 10—Dr. Edward Herrick Griffin, dean of the collegiate department of Johns Hopkins University, has tendered his resignation after a service at the institution of more than a quarter of a century. He said that he feels that he is entitled to a rest. He is nearly seventy-two years old. DIES IN HOSPITAL G. G. DE WITT LEFT $1,656,552. Dr. Griffin lives with his daughter, Miss Mary W. Griffin, and a son, Natherical Education of the few transfers and thankel E. Griffin He is one of the few transfers and thankel E. Griffin He is one of the few transfers. Sisters Get Bulk of Estate.

> $500,000 FOR NORTHWESTERN. Missionary Societies Get Like

Amount by Will of Banker. CHICAGO, June 10.—The entire estate John R. Ludgren, banker, estimated at 610,000, is left to Northwestern Uni-